The primary evaluation of 4-H'ers carrying the 4-H rabbit & cavy project takes place in the 4-H showmanship class. The 4-H entrant displays the animal to judges using handling technique and poise. Members must demonstrate good and bad points, check for eliminations and disqualifications at the judges instructions. There will be a mandatory written test as part of the showmanship score.

REGULATIONS:

1. Entrant picks his/her own class. This is the honor system, though advisors may make final decisions for sake of fairness.
2. If 4-H'er does not have a rabbit or cavy to use for showmanship, one will be provided by the Advisor.
3. 4-H'ers will place their rabbit or cavy on the table for judging.
4. Only authorized show officials and the entrant are allowed in the show area.
5. All animals in place Monday, 7pm.
6. 4-H'ers must wear a show coat or long sleeve button up shirt and long pants. Hair tied back. No jewelry.

AWARDS:

- Trophies for Jr., Intermediate, Sr. Showmanship. Ribbons for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place
- Rabbit & Cavy Showmen winners are to compete for Small Animal Showmanship and Overall Showman of Showman contest.

CLASSES:

Junior—entrants showing for first two years
Intermediate—entrant showing for three to four years
Senior—entrant showing for five years or more
*Entrants must move up to the next class after winning in their class.
