SMALL ANIMAL

SHOWMANSHIP

JUDGING: Friday, 12:00 (noon)

LOCATION: Poultry Barn

SHOWMANSHIP:

1. The winner in Rabbit, Cavy, Duck, Goose, Chicken and Turkey will compete against one another in this event.
2. Each Showman should prepare for this event ahead of time by seeking assistance from the Barn superintendent, 4-H Advisors, and experienced 4-H'ers.
3. Showmen will be evaluated on their ability to show a cavy, rabbit, duck, goose, chicken, and turkey. Showmanship score sheets used in 4-H competition will be used. Evaluation includes: appearance of showman; removal and transportation of animal, examination of animal; condition of animal; attitude and knowledge of showmanship and the animal.
4. The 4-H Barn Coordinator of the event will make final selection of animals to endure safety and fairness.
5. 4-H'ers must wear a show white coat or white long sleeve button up shirt and long pants. Hair tied back. No jewelry.
